Minnesota Majority tracked over 40 votes in the 2007-2008 legislative sessions, spanning a wide range of issues including taxes, government spending, parental rights, property rights, health care, education and energy policy. In many ways, these votes represent the front-line in the battle to defend traditional values in Minnesota's public policy.

We scored each state representative on how well they supported the "traditional values" position on the issues. Five legislators earned a perfect 100% score and were our top "Heroes" – Representatives Bruce Anderson, Mark Buesgens, Tom Emmer, Steve Drazkowski and Kurt Zellers. An additional 23 House members receive an honorable mention for supporting "traditional values" positions 90% of the time or better.

On the opposite side we have our "Zeros" – legislators who more often than not voted against the interests of everyday Minnesotans. Instead, these House members supported policies that would raise your taxes, expand government and reduce your freedoms. A total of 9 House members were perfect "Zeros". An additional 18 members receive a "dishonorable" mention for scoring 5% or less.

Where Does Your Representative Stand?

Review the attached legislative scorecard to see how your state representative scored against our "traditional values" agenda.
